Our Services:

- Family and Individual Support

We have an information and referral specialist who is able to connect people with CP with programs and services

- Advocacy Support

This is provided on an individual basis to people with disabilities

- Education Bursaries

These are awarded to students living with CP who are planning to pursue post-secondary education or attend institutions of higher learning in the following year

- Camp Bursaries

These funds are available to assist children, teens, and adults with CP, across BC, in attending a summer camp. Funds help pay the camp fee and/or transportation charges.

- Yoga Therapy Program

This program will enable youth, ages 13-24 with Cerebral Palsy to work directly with an experienced occupational therapist and yoga instructor to develop exercises that increase flexibility and promote healthy lifestyles. This vital project will help build long term habits in the critical transition between childhood and adulthood.

- Dance Without Limits

This program is a modified dance program that enables children, ages 5-15 with Cerebral Palsy to challenge themselves in their mobility and movement, while allowing them to participate in a group setting and enjoy artistic expression by dancing in their own unique way. Participants have the opportunity to do what they never dreamed possible: dance.

- Life Without Limits Community Connection Series

CPABC hosts a series of Life without Limits Community Forums four times per year on a variety of topics that affect our members.

- Lending Library

Our library contains books and videos concerning cerebral palsy that are useful to parents, professionals and those living with CP

- The Roundtable

Our quarterly newsletter keeps you up-to-date on the activities of the Association and the larger disabled community

- Speaker's Bureau

Informative presentations offered to schools, clubs, businesses, organizations and other groups, about cerebral palsy and disability awareness - phone our office to book an appointment

- Clothing Recycling Program

User-friendly clothing drop boxes located in Vancouver area - phone us at 604-408-9484 for a location near you

Association-Produced Manuals and Packages:

- A Guide to Cerebral Palsy

An easy-to-read educational booklet offered free of charge - once read an individual will have a good understanding of CP and some of the challenges it presents

- Living with Cerebral Palsy

This manual contains A Guide to Cerebral Palsy as well as information on topics such as sexuality, advocacy, financial planning and aging. An extensive resource guide, with contact information, is offered at the back of this publication.

- Putting the Puzzle Together

This manual is for educators on how to include children with all types of disabilities into the regular classroom. It is used widely in classrooms throughout the province and is required reading at the Kwantlen University College course for community and classroom support workers.

We are the first place people turn to for support, guidance, and information.
